We support your teaching, learning, and research by providing access to relevant, high-quality scholarly resources, tools, and services.

1 Ask a Librarian

Ask a question or search our FAQs. <https://libanswers.nps.edu/>
 We are on call Mon – Fri, 0900-1600.
 Or find and contact your subject area Library Liaison directly:
<https://library.nps.edu/my-librarian>

2 Library Search

Find books, ebooks, articles, reports, and more.
 In your results, click the checkbox to expand your search:

Modify My Results

Include items my library doesn't have, but that I can request

3 Shortcuts to Resources

Journal Titles: See if we have a particular journal

Database List: Find relevant research article/report databases and research guides

NPS Theses: Find NPS theses, dissertations, MBA reports, capstone project reports, faculty publications, and more. Publicly accessible and restricted materials are in separate archives. Put your publicly releasable work in the NPS Archive: Calhoun.

4 Accounts & Access

View and access all your library accounts.

New faculty, please email circdesk@nps.edu to activate your library account.

Login with your NPS credentials when prompted to access NPS-licensed resources.

5 Request Article or Book

Interlibrary Loan Services

You can request books/articles from other libraries.
 Articles PDFs are delivered electronically, usually within 2-3 days.
 Books can take up to 2 weeks to arrive.
